Parental Consent

- 16 or 17-year old applicants are not required to submit parental consent, but the U.S. Department of State requires evidence that parents are aware when they apply for passports. Implied consent is when a parent pays the minor's passport fees, a parent is listed as an emergency contact (#20 on page 2), or the parent co-signs the application, and provides a copy of their driver's license.
- 18 or 19-year old applicants without sufficient ID? Parent completes DS-71 and does not co-sign application

- Certified birth certificate; no photocopies

Fees (two separate payments)
